

Serenity

Keven Sum

Times going, times ticking, I'm hoping and I'm wishing that you will be fine

Ocean blue, with ocean views is something I want to be mine,

When I was young, I didn't see how special you were to everyone,

You are still special; you are a part of mother nature and I am the son,

Thinking how dumb? With how everyone is treating you,

Throwing trash, and polluting, I can't even see the blue,

No clear waters, no clear vision of what the future holds and is going to be,

People don't know the value you hold, and that is upsetting me,

But I know one thing that's always going to be true,

I'm not going to think anything bad of you,

I'm going to do what is right, so the animals and creatures that live can have a good life,

Eyes closed, counting to three, hoping that us two can be one,

With the Sand and the beaming sun, beaming on a nice day,

No way, no reason, I would want anything else,

When I'm gone and you aren't treated right go on and ask me for help,

Cause I can't live this life by myself.
