

Ocean's Importance

Paige Dupree

The Oceans are required for all life on Earth.

The Oceans produce 90% of all the rain on Earth.

The Oceans provide most of the food on Earth.

Without Oceans, most of humanity would die.

We need to save our Oceans.

So then the Oceans can continue to support life on Earth.

Generations to come need the Oceans.